Summer 2019 Village Infrastructure Projects are Wrapping Up:

The underground and surface renewal for 2nd Avenue North has now been concluded by Village contractors Rusway Construction Ltd and subcontractors: Motif Concrete Services Ltd and ASL Paving Ltd. Funding for the project is in part through the Small Communities Fund, reimbursing 66% of eligible expenses. Landscaping and engineered drawings are still to be completed; in addition to some other minor work like underground televising.

The Village's Public Works department utilized the services of the contractors while they were in town to repair sections of damaged sidewalks and patch faults in the roads caused from underground repairs.

The Marwayne Annual Street Dance was a great success, thanks to the volunteers, weather, organizers and participants. With the great weather, attendance was great.

I would like to send a huge thank you to all the people and groups, who without their help, would not have made this event happen.

The Village of Marwayne staff for all your help cleaning up downtown, setting, chairs and blockades and picking up and returning the ATCO tents.

The Marwayne Seniors' for gathering up all the food and cooking for the masses.

The Marwayne Chamber of Commerce for your generous donation, popcorn, tables, chairs and the flat deck trailer.

ATCO Electric for the use of the canopy tents.

Cargill, Parrish & Heimbecker and Lea Park Rodeo for your continued support.

Marwayne Fire Department for the Bouncy House and filling the Dunk Tank, not once but twice.

Roy Jackson for picking up and returning the Dunk Tank.

Boarder Town Hogs, Just Kruzin, Levi Hnatow & Kevin Golighty for the great music.

Amber Proulx, Elaine Kent, Nathan Saunders, Ilona Franklin & Family and anyone else I may have forgotten (sorry) who helped set up tents, tables and take them all back down again.

Erika Schonheiter for all your help.

And of course a big thanks to Anna Mueller, Sheila & Fred Mueller/Dorward for all their help with the Dunk Tank.

Summer Vacation

WHEN YOUR SUN SHINE HAS DISAPPEARED

When you have experienced a great loss and change in your life, the grief is so heavy it is hard to find one positive thought or feeling. It is hard to see the sun, feel warmth, see color or hear a melody you have never heard before.

Your life has been changed forever, innocence lost and your “world assumption” challenged. Your emotions are raw; anger, guilt, blame, fears, depression and a sense of helplessness is experienced. Working through your grief journey takes time and courage and a willingness to do the work of grieving.

Following is an exercise that may assist on the journey to finding hope and sun shine through your clouds:

A GRATITUDE PRACTICE

Getting back in touch with things in our lives that have brought us joy can help us move through difficult times. One of the best ways to reconnect with those things is to begin a gratitude journal. You may say I don't do journals and don't like to write. It can be difficult to get started on a gratitude journal, especially during times of turmoil and grief, but the results are worth it. READ ON:

Make a list. “Gratitude List”

A concrete gratitude is “I am thankful for this pen.”

List 5 things a day of gratitude (if 5 is too many maybe try 1 or 2 and increase)

Try thinking of the 5 things and what 5 things you can think of right now.

Have a gratitude “object” such as a small rock or coin. When touching the object it reminds to think of 5 things of gratitude.

It will help you focus on what is right in your life and remind you of all the things you have been grateful for each time and you can develop a sense of trust in your own well being.

As you begin to explore the practice of gratitude, you will begin to see that gratitude builds upon itself.

The more things in your life you discover that you are grateful for, the more things you will notice to appreciate. Gratitude becomes an act of self blessing, and not only you, but every person in your life will benefit from it. Practice gratitude, and you will commence the creation of your own happiness.
